Beneficiary: [REDACTED]

PETITION: Nonimmigrant Petition for Religious Worker Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(R)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(R)(1)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied by us in reaching our decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen. The specific requirements for filing such a request can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. All motions must be submitted to the office that originally decided your case by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $585. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires that any motion must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the employment-based nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a church. It seeks to extend the beneficiary's status as a nonimmigrant religious worker pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(R)(1) of the Act to perform services as a minister. The director determined that the petitioner had not established it qualifies as a bona fide nonprofit religious organization and that it had failed to submit the required attestation.

On appeal, the petitioner states that evidence of its tax-exempt status "should have been sent from the first day with the petition." The petitioner submits copies of previously submitted documentation in support of the appeal.

Section 101(a)(15)(R) of the Act pertains to an alien who:

(i) for the 2 years immediately preceding the time of application for admission, has been a member of a religious denomination having a bona fide nonprofit, religious organization in the United States; and

(ii) seeks to enter the United States for a period not to exceed 5 years to perform the work described in subclause (I), (II), or (III) of paragraph (27)(C)(ii).

Section 101(a)(27)(C)(ii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(27)(C)(ii), pertains to a nonimmigrant who seeks to enter the United States:

(I) solely for the purpose of carrying on the vocation of a minister of that religious denomination,

(II) . . . in order to work for the organization at the request of the organization in a professional capacity in a religious vocation or occupation, or

(III) . . . in order to work for the organization (or for a bona fide organization which is affiliated with the religious denomination and is exempt from taxation as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) at the request of the organization in a religious vocation or occupation.

The first issue presented is whether the petitioner has established that it is a bona fide nonprofit tax-exempt religious organization.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(r)(3) defines a tax-exempt organization as "an organization that has received a determination letter from the IRS [Internal Revenue Service] establishing that it, or a group it belongs to, is exempt from taxation in accordance with section[] 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code" (IRC). The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(r)(9) provides:

Evidence relating to the petitioning organization. A petition shall include the following initial evidence relating to the petitioning organization:

(i) A currently valid determination letter from the IRS showing that the organization is a tax-exempt organization; or

(ii) For a religious organization that is recognized as tax-exempt under a group tax-exemption, a currently valid determination letter from the IRS establishing that the group is tax-exempt; or

(iii) For a bona fide organization that is affiliated with the religious denomination, if the organization was granted tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3), or subsequent amendment or equivalent sections of prior enactments, of the [IRC], as something other than a religious organization:

(A) A currently valid determination letter from the IRS establishing that the organization is a tax-exempt organization;

(B) Documentation that establishes the religious nature and purpose of the organization, such as a copy of the organizing instrument of the organization that specifies the purposes of the organization;

(C) Organizational literature, such as books, articles, brochures, calendars, flyers, and other literature describing the religious purpose and nature of the activities of the organization; and

(D) A religious denomination certification. The religious organization must complete, sign and date a statement certifying that the petitioning organization is affiliated with the religious denomination. The statement must be submitted by the petitioner along with the petition.

With the petition, the petitioner submitted a copy of a September 26, 1973 letter from the IRS to the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene indicating that the organization was granted a group exemption for its subordinates. The petitioner also submitted a September 7, 2006 letter from the Colorado District Church of the Nazarene, in which it stated that the petitioning organization is covered under the group exemption letter granted to the General Board. In response to a January 30, 2009 request for evidence (RFE), the petitioner submitted a copy of its registration certificate from the State of Colorado and a copy of a page from the IRS website that contains the petitioner's federal employer identification number.

In denying the petition, the director noted the documents submitted by the petitioner in response to the RFE. The director did not state why the documentation initially submitted by the petitioner as it relates to this regulatory requirement was deficient. The petitioner resubmits these documents on appeal.

The petitioner has provided sufficient documentation to establish that it is a bona fide nonprofit religious organization, and we withdraw the director's determination to the contrary.

The second issue is whether the petitioner has provided the required attestation. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(r)(8) provides:

An authorized official of the prospective employer of an R-1 alien must complete, sign and date an attestation prescribed by USCIS and submit it along with the petition. The prospective employer must specifically attest to all of the following:

- (i) That the prospective employer is a bona fide non-profit religious organization or a bona fide organization which is affiliated with the religious denomination and is exempt from taxation;
- (ii) That the alien has been a member of the denomination for at least two years and that the alien is otherwise qualified for the position offered;
- (iii) The number of members of the prospective employer's organization;
- (iv) The number of employees who work at the same location where the beneficiary will be employed and a summary of the type of responsibilities of those employees. USCIS may request a list of all employees, their titles, and a brief description of their duties at its discretion;
- (v) The number of aliens holding special immigrant or nonimmigrant religious worker status currently employed or employed within the past five years by the prospective employer's organization;
- (vi) The number of special immigrant religious worker and nonimmigrant religious worker petitions and applications filed by or on behalf of any aliens for employment by the prospective employer in the past five years;
- (vii) The title of the position offered to the alien and a detailed description of the alien's proposed daily duties;
- (viii) Whether the alien will receive salaried or non-salaried compensation and the details of such compensation;
- (ix) That the alien will be employed at least 20 hours per week;
- (x) The specific location(s) of the proposed employment; and
- (xi) That the alien will not be engaged in secular employment.

The petitioner failed to submit the required attestation in response to the RFE and does not further address this issue on appeal. Accordingly, the petition may not be approved.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
