INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the AAO inappropriately applied the law in reaching its decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen in accordance with the instructions on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630. The specific requirements for filing such a motion can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Do not file any motion directly with the AAO. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires any motion to be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Ron Rosenberg
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the employment-based nonimmigrant visa petition. The Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) dismissed a subsequent appeal. The matter is now before the AAO on a motion to reopen. The motion will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a church. It seeks to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant religious worker under section 101(a)(15)(R)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(R)(1), to perform services as associate pastor of its children and youth ministry. The AAO affirmed the director's decision that the petitioner had not established how it intends to compensate the beneficiary.

On motion, counsel asserts, "Amended financial evidence provided by the church demonstrates petitioner's ability to compensate the beneficiary. A timely brief and new evidence will be provided." As of the date of this decision, more than four months after the motion was filed, the AAO has received no additional documentation from the petitioner. Regardless, there is no provision in the regulations for a petitioner to supplement a previously filed motion. Any new materials submitted on motion must be submitted at the time the motion is filed. Therefore, the record will be considered complete as presently constituted.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be provided and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). Based on the plain meaning of "new," a new fact is found to be evidence that was not available and could not have been discovered or presented in the previous proceeding.¹ The petitioner submitted no documentary evidence in support of the motion.

Motions for the reopening of immigration proceedings are disfavored for the same reasons as are petitions for rehearing and motions for a new trial on the basis of newly discovered evidence. INS v. Doherty, 502 U.S. 314, 323 (1992)(citing INS v. Abudu, 485 U.S. 94 (1988)). A party seeking to reopen a proceeding bears a "heavy burden." INS v. Abudu, 485 U.S. at 110. With the current motion, the petitioner has not met that burden. The motion to reopen will be dismissed.

The burden of proof in visa petition proceedings remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. Here, the petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The motion to reopen is dismissed, the decision of the AAO dated August 10, 2012 is affirmed, and the petition remains denied.

¹ The word "new" is defined as "1. Having existed or been made for only a short time . . . 3. Just discovered, found, or learned <new evidence> . . ." WEBSTER'S NEW COLLEGE DICTIONARY, (3d Ed 2008). (Emphasis in original).
