DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) dismissed a subsequent appeal and a motion to reconsider. The matter is again before the AAO on motions to reopen and to reconsider. The motions will be dismissed.

The motions are untimely. Under the provisions of 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i), a motion to reopen or reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen or reconsider. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b) states that whenever a person is required to act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. The AAO issued its decision on November 15, 2012. The AAO notes that the USCIS Phoenix Lockbox initially rejected the petitioner's Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion. The petitioner's Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, is dated January 9, 2012 and filed with the lockbox on January 18, 2013, 61 days after the AAO issued its decision. The motion was therefore filed untimely.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a) provides that the agency may, in its discretion, accept a motion to reopen beyond this time frame if the petitioner demonstrates that the delay was reasonable and beyond his or her control. The petitioner submitted did not allege and submitted no evidence to establish that its failure to file its motion within the prescribed time was beyond its control.

ORDER: The motions are dismissed.
