DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center (the director), denied the nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed and the petition will remain denied.

The petitioner seeks nonimmigrant classification under section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U), as an alien victim of certain qualifying criminal activity.

The director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to show that she had been helpful to law enforcement in the investigation or prosecution of qualifying criminal activity. The director noted that on the Form I-918 Supplement B, the certifying official marked "n/a" when asked if the petitioner had been helpful to the investigation or prosecution of the criminal activity.

On appeal, the petitioner submits a copy of the previously submitted Form I-918 Supplement B, a letter stating that she was helpful with the court when they asked, and a psychological evaluation.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

In this case, the petitioner fails to identify any specific, erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's decision. The petitioner has not provided any further relevant evidence to indicate that she was helpful to law enforcement in the investigation or prosecution of any qualifying criminal activity. The petitioner provides no legal or factual basis for the appeal. Consequently, the appeal must be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden and the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
