IN RE: PETITIONER:
BENEFICIARY:

PETITION: Petition for U Nonimmigrant Classification for Qualifying Family Member of U-1 Recipient Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(U)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U)(ii)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

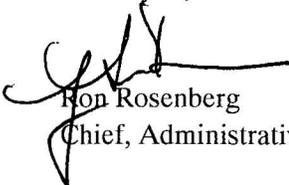

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) in your case.

This is a non-precedent decision. The AAO does not announce new constructions of law nor establish agency policy through non-precedent decisions.

Thank you,

Ron Rosenberg
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director of the Vermont Service Center (the director) denied the Petition for Qualifying Family Member of a U-1 Recipient (Form I-918 Supplement A) submitted by the petitioner on the beneficiary's behalf. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The director's decision shall be withdrawn and the matter remanded for entry of a new decision.

The petitioner seeks nonimmigrant classification of the beneficiary under section 101(a)(15)(U)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U)(ii), as a qualifying family member of a U nonimmigrant. We are withdrawing the director's decision and remanding the matter for reconsideration pursuant to the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013, Public Law No. 113-4 (VAWA 2013), which came into effect on March 7, 2013 (providing retroactive age-out protection to child derivatives).¹

ORDER: The director's decision is withdrawn and the matter returned for issuance of a new decision on the Form I-918 Supplement A, which if adverse to the petitioner shall be certified to the Administrative Appeals Office for review.
