DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center (the director), denied the U nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed and the petition will remain denied.

The petitioner seeks nonimmigrant classification under section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U), as an alien victim of certain qualifying criminal activity.

The petitioner filed the instant Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status (Form I-918 U petition) on June 12, 2012 without an Application for Advance Permission to Enter as Nonimmigrant (Form I-192). On March 12, 2013, the director denied the Form I-918 U petition because the petitioner did not establish that he was a direct or indirect victim of qualifying criminal activity, that he had suffered resultant substantial physical or mental abuse, that he possessed information concerning the qualifying criminal activity, or that he was helpful to the certifying agency. In addition, the director noted that the petitioner was inadmissible to the United States and had failed to submit a Form I-192. On appeal, the petitioner submits a Notice of Appeal (Form I-290B), indicating that a brief or other evidence will be submitted within 30 days, or by June 16, 2013. As of the date of this decision, no additional statements or evidence have been submitted.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R § 103.3(a)(1)(v) provides for the summary dismissal of an appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. On the Form I-290B, the petitioner failed to identify any specific erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's denial of the Form I-918 U petition and we have received no further evidence or brief in support of the appeal. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The petition remains denied.
