DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center (the director), denied the U nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed and the petition will remain denied.

The petitioner seeks nonimmigrant classification under section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U), as an alien victim of certain qualifying criminal activity.

The petitioner filed the instant Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status (Form I-918 U petition) on June 21, 2013. On February 4, 2014, the director denied the Form I-918 U petition because the petitioner did not submit a properly executed Form I-918 Supplement B, U Nonimmigrant Status Certification (Form I-918 Supplement B). In addition, the director noted that the petitioner did not establish his eligibility as it relates to possession of information, helpfulness to law enforcement, substantial abuse, or that the United States has jurisdiction to investigate or prosecute the qualifying crime. Further, the director noted that the petitioner was inadmissible to the United States. On appeal, the petitioner, through counsel, submits a Notice of Appeal (Form I-290B), indicating that a brief or other evidence will be submitted within 30 days, or by April 9, 2014. As of the date of this decision, no additional statements or evidence have been submitted.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R § 103.3(a)(1)(v) provides for the summary dismissal of an appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. On the Form I-290B, counsel failed to identify any specific erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's denial of the Form I-918 U petition and we have received no further evidence or brief in support of the appeal. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The petition remains denied.
