DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center (the director), denied the petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks nonimmigrant classification under section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U), as an alien victim of certain qualifying criminal activity.

The petitioner filed the instant Form I-918, Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status (Form I-918 U petition), on August 5, 2013. The director issued a Request for Evidence (RFE) that, among other issues, the petitioner had suffered substantial physical or mental abuse as the result of being the victim of a qualifying crime. The petitioner responded to the RFE with an affidavit and the citations to two court cases. The director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to establish that she was the victim of a qualifying crime or criminal activity and therefore also failed to show that she met the remaining statutory requirements.

On appeal, the petitioner submits a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, and no other statement or evidence. In Part 3(1) of the Form I-290B, she selected box c., which states, "I am filing an appeal to the AAO. No supplemental brief and/or additional evidence will be submitted." She has not complied with the requirement at Part 4, which instructs that "you must provide a statement regarding the basis for the appeal or motion."

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner has failed to identify any specific, erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's decision denying her petition. Consequently, we must summarily dismiss the appeal in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The petition remains denied.
