DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center (the director), denied the nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed. The petition will remain denied.

The petitioner seeks nonimmigrant classification under section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U), as an alien victim of certain qualifying criminal activity.

The director denied the petition on June 6, 2012, because the petitioner failed to establish that he had suffered substantial physical or mental abuse as the result of having been the victim of qualifying criminal activity, and that he possessed credible and reliable information concerning the qualifying criminal activity. The director also noted deficiencies with the Form I-918 Supplement B that the petitioner submitted. Consequently, the director determined that the petitioner did not meet the statutory eligibility criteria for U classification at section 101(a)(15)(U)(i) of the Act.

On appeal, counsel submitted a Notice of Appeal (Form I-290B), indicating that a brief or other evidence would be submitted within 30 days, or by July 11, 2012. To date, over three months later, the AAO has received no further brief or evidence from counsel or the petitioner.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

On the Form I-290B, counsel claimed that a brief explaining erroneous conclusions of fact or law would be submitted within 30 days. Counsel failed to identify any specific erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's decision and the AAO has received no further evidence or brief in support of the appeal. Accordingly, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The petition remains denied.
