IN RE: Petitioner:
Beneficiary:

Petition: Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b)

IN BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen. Please refer to 8 C.F.R. § 103.5 for the specific requirements. All motions must be submitted to the office that originally decided your case by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $585. Any motion must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required by 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i).

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center, denied the petition for a nonimmigrant visa, and the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) dismissed a subsequent appeal. The matter is once again before the AAO on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The petitioner is a neuromonitoring company. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as a medical technologist. Accordingly, the petitioner endeavors to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

On April 8, 2002, the director denied the petition, determining that the record did not establish that the proffered position is a specialty occupation. The petitioner appealed, and the AAO dismissed the appeal on March 19, 2003. The matter is once again before the AAO on appeal.

Title 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) requires the affected party to file an appeal using Form I-290B. In this case, the petitioner filed an appeal using Form EOIR-29, Notice of Appeal to Board of Immigration Appeals from a Decision of an INS Officer.¹ Therefore, the appeal will be rejected as improperly filed.

Moreover, even if the appeal were not being rejected for the reasons explained above, it would be summarily dismissed. Regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) state, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as the petitioner has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal would have to be summarily dismissed. The petitioner failed to provide any additional evidence for the AAO to consider or to identify any errors made by the director in this proceeding.

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.

¹While counsel improperly filed the appeal using Form EOIR-29, it must be noted that the Board of Immigration Appeals does not have jurisdiction over this matter. See 8 C.F.R. § 1003.1(b). The AAO properly has jurisdiction over this matter. The authority to adjudicate appeals is delegated to the AAO by the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) pursuant to the authority vested in him through the Homeland Security Act of 2002, Pub. L. 107-296. See DHS Delegation Number 0150.1 (effective March 1, 2003); see also 8 C.F.R. § 2.1 (2003). The AAO exercises appellate jurisdiction over the matters described at 8 C.F.R. § 103.1(f)(3)(iii) (as in effect on February 28, 2003). See DHS Delegation Number 0150.1(U) supra; 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(iv).
