DISCUSSION: The service center director denied the instant nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

On the Form I-129 visa petition the petitioner stated that it is an IT software development and consulting firm. In order to employ the beneficiary in what it designates as a systems analyst position, the petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition on the basis that the petitioner had failed to establish that a bona fide job offer is open to the beneficiary.

Counsel submitted a Form I-290B appeal in this matter. In the section reserved for the reason for filing the appeal, counsel inserted, "Please see attached petitioner's letter in support of this appeal filed within 30 days with AAO." That statement appears to assert both that the petitioner's letter in support of the appeal was attached to the appeal and that it would be submitted within 30 days. However, counsel's cover letter listing the submissions on appeal does not include a letter from the petitioner among its enclosures. Also, counsel checked Box B in Part 2 of Form I-290B to indicate that a brief or additional evidence, or both, would be submitted within 30 days.

No brief or evidence was submitted to the AAO, either with the form appeal or subsequently. Accordingly, the record of proceeding is deemed complete as currently constituted.

Counsel's statement on appeal contains no specific assignment of error. Alleging, directly or indirectly, that the director erred in some unspecified way is an insufficient basis for an appeal.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part: "An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal."

Counsel has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal and, therefore, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
