DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed. The petition will remain denied.

The petitioner states that it is engaged in the sale and export of dental equipment/products and automotive services. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as a clinical scientist pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition on the grounds that: (1) the petitioner failed to establish that a reasonable and credible offer of employment existed; and (2) the petitioner failed to establish that the proposed position qualifies for classification as a specialty occupation.

Counsel for the petitioner noted on the Notice of Appeal (Form I-290B) that a supplemental brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. To date, no supplemental brief or evidence has been submitted. The record is considered complete.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

As the petitioner does not present additional evidence or argument on appeal sufficient to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

The burden of proof in this proceeding rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The petition remains denied.
