DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as the matter is now moot.

The petitioner states on the Form I-129 visa petition that it provides information technology outsourcing and consulting professional services. It seeks to employ the beneficiary in what it designates as a solutions architect position and to classify him as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition on September 28, 2009, finding that the petitioner failed to establish that the proffered position was in a specialty occupation.

A review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that the beneficiary adjusted his status to that of a lawful permanent resident on August 13, 2010. While the petitioner has not withdrawn the appeal in this proceeding, it would appear that the beneficiary is presently a lawful permanent resident and the issues in this proceeding are moot. Therefore, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed as moot.
