DISCUSSION: The service center director denied the instant nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as the matter is now moot.

In the Form I-129 visa petition, filed November 4, 2009, the petitioner described itself only as an S corporation. To employ the beneficiary in what it designates as a senior technical consultant position, the petitioner endeavors to classify him as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition on December 8, 2009 on multiple bases. On appeal, counsel contended that the director's decision to deny the petition does not accord with the evidence of record and, therefore, should be overturned.

A review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that on December 10, 2010, a date subsequent to the denial of the instant petition, the petitioner submitted a new Form I-129, [REDACTED] on behalf of the beneficiary. USCIS records further indicate that this second petition was approved on January 4, 2011, which granted the beneficiary H-1B status from January 4, 2011 until October 31, 2013. Because the beneficiary in the instant petition has been approved for H-1B employment with the petitioner based upon the filing of another petition, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. The petition is denied.
