DISCUSSION: The director, California Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as the matter is now moot.

The petitioner stated on the Form I-129 visa petition that it is an arurvedic health spa established in 1992. To employ the beneficiary in what it designates as a vedic health educator position, the petitioner endeavors to classify her as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition on April 5, 2010, finding that the petitioner failed to establish that the proffered position qualifies for classification as a specialty occupation. On appeal, counsel for the petitioner submits a brief.

A review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that on August 29, 2011, a date subsequent to the denial of the instant petition, another employer filed a Form I-129 petition seeking nonimmigrant H-1B classification on behalf of the beneficiary. USCIS records further indicate that this other employer's petition was approved on November 16, 2011.

Because the beneficiary in the instant petition has been approved for H-1B employment with another petitioner, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. The petition is denied.
