DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the service center director and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as the matter is now moot.

On the Petition for Nonimmigrant Worker (Form I-129), the petitioner describes its type of business as "medical billing and collection" and states that it seeks to employ the beneficiary as a market research analyst. The petitioner, therefore, endeavors to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition, finding that the petitioner failed to establish that the proffered position qualifies as a specialty occupation within the meaning of the controlling statutory and regulatory provisions. On appeal, counsel for the petitioner submits a brief and additional evidence.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services records indicate that the beneficiary has been granted permanent residence as of January 18, 2012. While the petitioner has not withdrawn the appeal in this proceeding, it would appear that the beneficiary is presently a permanent resident and the issue in this proceeding is moot. Therefore, this appeal is dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed as moot.
