Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the instant nonimmigrant visa petition, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party or the attorney or representative of record must file the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i). Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the 33-day time limit for filing an appeal.

The record indicates that the director issued the decision on October 24, 2012. The petitioner initially sent the appeal, contrary to the instructions in the decision of denial and on the appeal form, directly to the AAO. On November 27, 2012, the AAO rejected that appeal as improperly filed. The petitioner resubmitted that appeal on Tuesday, December 4, 2012, 41 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director of the California Service Center. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii).

The matter will therefore be returned to the director. The AAO notes, however, that the record contains a letter from an attorney who stated that the petitioner wishes to withdraw the appeal. Therefore, even if the appeal were not rejected as untimely, it would be dismissed based upon its withdrawal.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
