Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The service center director denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner submitted a Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker (Form I-129) to the California Service Center. On the Form I-129 visa petition, the petitioner describes itself as a development and consulting business established in 2002. In order to employ the beneficiary in what it designates as a programmer analyst position, the petitioner seeks to classify him as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition, finding that the petitioner failed to establish eligibility for the benefit sought in accordance with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions.

On April 18, 2014, the petitioner's counsel submitted a Notice of Appeal or Motion (Form I-290B). Counsel for the petitioner checked Box B in Part 3(1) of the form to indicate that he was filing an appeal and that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. Part 4 of the Form I-290B, entitled "Basis for the Appeal or Motion," provides the following instructions regarding appeals:

On a separate sheet of paper, you must provide a statement regarding the basis for the appeal or motion. You must include your name and A-number or USCIS ELIS Account Number on the top of each sheet.

Appeal: Provide a statement that specifically identifies an erroneous conclusion of law or fact in the decision being appealed.

Along with the Form I-290B, counsel submitted a copy of the director's decision, the Notice of Action (Form I-797C) related to the Form I-129, and a cover letter indicating that he would submit a brief to the AAO within 30 days. No additional statement regarding the reason for the appeal was provided. To date, the AAO has not received the statement referenced by counsel. Accordingly, the record of proceeding is deemed complete as currently constituted.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part: "An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal." In the instant case, the petitioner and its counsel failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact by the director as a basis for the appeal and, therefore, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
