DISCUSSION: The service center director denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be dismissed.

On the Form I-129 visa petition, the petitioner described itself as a management company and restaurant that was established in 1999. In order to employ the beneficiary in what it designates as a market research analyst position, the petitioner seeks to classify him as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition, finding that the petitioner failed to establish that the proffered position qualifies as a specialty occupation in accordance with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. On appeal, the petitioner asserts that the director's basis for denial of the petition was erroneous and contends that it satisfied all evidentiary requirements.

We sent a Request for Evidence (RFE) to the petitioner. The petitioner was afforded 33 days to respond to the request. The petitioner did not respond within the 33 day period allowed in the request, or any time since then.

If a petitioner fails to respond to a request for evidence by the required date, the petition may be summarily denied as abandoned, denied based on the record, or denied for both reasons. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(13)(i). As further provided in 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(14), the failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry shall be grounds for denying the petition.

As the petitioner has not responded to our RFE, the petition is deniable under the regulatory provisions cited above. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed, and the petition will be summarily denied as abandoned and denied due to the failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry, making any remaining issues in this proceeding moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. The petition is summarily denied as abandoned and denied due to the failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry.
