MATTER OF A-C- INC.

DATE: DEC. 1, 2015

APPEAL OF VERMONT SERVICE CENTER DECISION

PETITION: FORM I-129, PETITION FOR A NONIMMIGRANT WORKER

The Petitioner, an information technology services firm, seeks to temporarily employ the Beneficiary as a “web applications developer” under the H-1B nonimmigrant classification. See Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) § 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b). The Director, Vermont Service Center, initially approved the nonimmigrant visa petition. Upon subsequent review of the record, the Director issued a notice of intent to revoke the approval of the petition, and ultimately revoked the approval of the petition. The matter is now before us on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The Petitioner submitted a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, and checked box “b” in “Part 3. Information About the Appeal or Motion” to indicate that it was filing an appeal and would send a brief and/or additional evidence within 30 days. We fully and in-detail reviewed the submission, including Form I-290B and the cover letter. However, the Petitioner did not identify any specific assignment of error. Moreover, although the Petitioner stated that it would send a brief and/or additional evidence, we have not received the submission within the allotted timeframe or thereafter. Accordingly, the record of proceeding is deemed complete as currently constituted.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part, “An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.” In the instant case, the Petitioner did not identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal and, therefore, the appeal must be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).¹

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. §103.3(a)(1)(v).
