APPEAL OF VERMONT SERVICE CENTER DECISION

PETITION: FORM I-129, PETITION FOR A NONIMMIGRANT WORKER

The Petitioner, a vocational institute, seeks to employ the Beneficiary as an allied health instructor and to classify her as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation. See Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) § 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b). The Director, Vermont Service Center, revoked the approval of the petition. The matter is now before us on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The Director revoked the approval of the visa petition finding that the Petitioner had violated the terms and conditions of the approved petition. Specifically, the Director noted that an administrative site visit to verify the Beneficiary's employment revealed that the Petitioner was not paying the Beneficiary the proffered wage established by the terms and conditions of the approved petition. On appeal, the Petitioner asserts that the Director's basis for revocation of the approval of the petition was erroneous.

A review of the record of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services indicates that the Beneficiary adjusted status to that of a lawful permanent resident on May 20, 2015. Because the Beneficiary is presently a lawful permanent resident, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot. Therefore, this appeal is dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
