Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The service center director (the director) denied the nonimmigrant visa petition, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be sustained. The petition will be approved.

The petitioner seeks to extend the nonimmigrant classification of the beneficiaries as temporary agricultural workers pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a). The director denied the petition, concluding that the petitioner failed to establish a temporary need for the services of the beneficiaries.

Based upon our de novo review of the entire record of proceeding, including the documents submitted by the petitioner on appeal, we find that the evidence of record now demonstrates that the petitioner has a temporary need for the services of the beneficiaries. Accordingly, the appeal will be sustained, and the petition will be approved.

In visa petition proceedings, it is the petitioner's burden to establish eligibility for the immigration benefit sought. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361; Matter of Otiende, 26 I&N Dec. 127, 128 (BIA 2013). Here, that burden has been met.

ORDER: The director's decision dated February 6, 2014 is withdrawn. The petition is approved.
