DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the petition for a nonimmigrant visa. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The AAO will dismiss the appeal.

The petitioner filed this nonimmigrant petition seeking to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant intracompany transferee pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(L) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(L). The petitioner, a California corporation, states that it is engaged in the import and export of general merchandise. It claims to be a subsidiary of Sunshine Jiayu Golden Hotel Beijing Co., Ltd., located in China. The beneficiary was previously granted L-1A classification for a period of one year in order to open a new office in the United States. The petitioner seeks to extend the beneficiary's employment in the general manager for a period of three years.

The director denied the petition on June 11, 2009, concluding that the petitioner failed to establish that the beneficiary would be employed in the United States in a qualifying managerial or executive capacity. The petitioner filed a timely appeal.

A review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that the beneficiary of this petition was also the beneficiary of an approved family-based immigrant petition (Form I-130) and that she has adjusted status to that of a U.S. permanent resident as of September 8, 2011. While the petitioner has not withdrawn the appeal in this proceeding, it would appear that the beneficiary is presently a lawful permanent resident and the issues in this proceeding are moot. Therefore, this appeal is dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
