DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as moot.

The petitioner filed this nonimmigrant petition to classify the beneficiary as an intracompany transferee employed in a specialized knowledge capacity pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(L) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(L). The petitioner, a computer-aided design engineering and development firm, seeks to extend the beneficiary's L-1B status so that he may continue to serve in the position of mechanical engineering liaison.

The director denied the petition on April 26, 2010 after concluding that the petitioner failed to establish that the beneficiary's employment at an unaffiliated employer's facilities would be permissible under section 214(c)(2)(F) of the Act, as created by the L-1 Visa Reform Act of 2004. The petitioner filed a timely appeal of the director's decision.

A review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that the beneficiary of this petition adjusted status to that of a U.S. lawful permanent resident as of July 28, 2011.

Accordingly, while the petitioner has not withdrawn the appeal in this proceeding, it would appear that the beneficiary is presently a lawful permanent resident and the issues in this proceeding are moot. Therefore, this appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
