Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party or the attorney or representative of record must file the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the actual receipt of receipt at the designated filing location. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The record indicates that the service center director issued the decision on July 30, 2012. It is noted that the service center director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file the appeal. Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend this time limit.

Although the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, was dated August 27, 2012, 28 days after the decision was issued, it was not received and deemed properly filed at the designated filing location until September 26, 2012, or 58 days after the decision was issued.¹ Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director of the Vermont Service Center. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). The director declined to treat the appeal as a motion and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.

¹ The record shows that the Form I-290B was initially submitted to the designated filing location on September 6, 2012, but was rejected and returned to the petitioner. Since the Form I-290B was rejected, it did not retain a filing date. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(7)(iii). Regardless, the petitioner was required to file the appeal on or before September 4, 2012 in order for it to be considered timely filed. Therefore the petitioner's original submission would have been deemed untimely even if it had been accepted for processing.
