DISCUSSION: The Form N-470, Application to Preserve Residence for Naturalization Purposes (N-470 Application) was denied by the District Director, Newark, New Jersey. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed, and the N-470 application will be denied.

The applicant seeks to preserve his residence for naturalization purposes pursuant to section 316(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1427(b). The district director determined that the applicant was not eligible for consideration under section 316(b) of the Act because he failed to demonstrate that he was physically present in the United States for a continuous period of at least one year after being lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States. In the present matter, the applicant was lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States on March 24, 2004, and subsequently filed the current application on January 20, 2005, two months prior to the one year mark. The application was denied accordingly.

On April 21, 2005, the applicant submitted the Form I-290B to appeal the denial of the underlying application. The applicant marked the box at part two of the Form I-290B to indicate that no supplemental brief and/or additional evidence will be submitted. Thus, the AAO deems the record complete as currently constituted.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

On the Form I-290B, the petitioner states the following:

My application to Preserve Residence for Naturalization has been denied as the application was submitted before the uninterrupted period of one year after lawful admission for permanent residence. In this respect I want to state that my intended date of departure (27th Apr. 05) as mentioned in application is about a month after one year of uninterrupted stay in USA. I applied earlier to allow time for decision. As my stay is now over a year, I humbly request to accept this appeal to Preserve Residence for Naturalization.

In regard to the director's conclusions that the applicant failed to submit sufficient evidence to show that he had been present in the United States for an uninterrupted period of one year, the applicant fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. In fact, the applicant acknowledges that he applied prior to the end of the one year period of time in the United States. As no additional evidence is presented on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

The applicant requests on appeal to approve the application since by the time the appeal was filed, one year of uninterrupted time in the United States had passed. The applicant must establish eligibility at the time of filing the application. An application may not be approved at a future date after the applicant becomes eligible under a new set of facts. Matter of Michelin Tire Corp., 17 I&N Dec. 248 (Reg. Comm. 1978).

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The applicant has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The application is denied.
