APPLICATION:

Application for Certificate of Citizenship under Section 301 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1401.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Buffalo, New York, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The district director found the applicant had failed to establish that his U.S. citizen father was physically present in the United States for ten years prior to the applicant's birth, as required by section 301 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1401. The applicant's Form N-600, Application for Certificate of Citizenship was denied accordingly.

In an appeal filed on January 11, 2006, the applicant states that he is gathering additional information relating to his father's physical presence in the United States prior to his birth, and he indicates that he will send a brief and/or evidence to the AAO within thirty days. The applicant makes no other assertions on appeal, and the AAO notes that it has received no additional documents or evidence from the applicant.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant has failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in his appeal. The appeal will therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
