DISCUSSION: The application for a certificate of citizenship was denied by the Buffalo, New York Field Office Director and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant seeks a certificate of citizenship based upon his claim that he was born in the United States to a U.S. citizen mother. The field office director denied the application because the record showed that the applicant was born in Zaire and indicated that neither of his parents were U.S. citizens. The field office director further noted that the applicant submitted no evidence of his birth in the United States or that either of his parents were U.S. citizens.

On appeal, the applicant states: "Becose [sic] I applies [sic] in NY York City [illegible] 23 January 2010." The applicant submitted no further statement or additional evidence in support of his appeal.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) prescribes that an appeal shall be summarily dismissed when "the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal."

On appeal, the applicant identifies no specific error of law or fact in the field office director's decision and submits no additional evidence to support his claim to U.S. citizenship. Consequently, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
