Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, San Diego, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days after service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The record indicates that the district director issued his decision on June 9, 2011. It is noted that the district director properly gave notice to the applicant that she had 33 days to file the appeal and indicated that “the appeal may not be filed with directly with the Administrative Appeals Office.” See Decision of the District Director at 1. Rather, the district director instructed the applicant that an appeal was to be filed with the San Diego District Office at the address listed. The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, was erroneously filed with this office and not properly submitted to the San Diego District Office until August 4, 2011, which was more than 33 days after the decision was issued. Neither the Immigration and Nationality Act nor the regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the 33-day time limit for filing an appeal. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director of the San Diego District Office. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii).

The matter will therefore be returned to the director. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
