Ron Rosenberg
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Form N-600, Application for Certificate of Citizenship (Form N600) was denied by the Field Office Director, Chicago, Illinois (the director), and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who seeks a certificate of citizenship pursuant to former sections 309 and 301 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the former Act), 8 U.S.C. §§ 1409 and 1401. On January 17, 2013, the director determined that the applicant had failed to establish that she satisfied the requirements for acquisition of U.S. citizenship. The Form N600 was denied accordingly.

The record reflects that attorney, [REDACTED] signed the applicant's Form I-290B notice of appeal. However the appeal, filed February 6, 2013, does not contain a new and properly executed Form G-28, notice of entry as attorney signed by the applicant and the attorney.

In accordance with the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 292.4(a), as well as the instructions on the Form I-290B, a "new [Form G-28] must be filed with an appeal filed with the Administrative Appeals Office." This regulation applies to all appeals filed on or after March 4, 2010. See 75 Fed. Reg. 5225 (Feb. 2, 2010). The AAO sent a facsimile transmission to attorney, [REDACTED] on September 20, 2013, informing him that the applicant's appeal was improperly filed and allowing him 15 days to submit a new and properly executed Form G-28; however, no response was received.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(A)(2)(i) states in pertinent part:

[I]f an appeal is filed by an attorney or representative without a properly executed Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative (Form G-28) entitling that person to file the appeal, the appeal is considered improperly filed.

In the present matter, the applicant's appeal does not contain a new and properly executed Form G-28 signed by the applicant and the attorney. Accordingly, the appeal has not been properly filed and it must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
