Ron Rosenberg
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The District Director, New York, New York, denied the Application for Certificate of Citizenship (Form N-600) and it is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant seeks a certificate of citizenship under section 320 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1431, claiming that he derived citizenship through his mother.

The director determined that the applicant failed to establish he acquired citizenship under section 320 of the Act and noted he failed to respond to a Request for Evidence seeking proof of his parents' marriage(s), as well as of his U.S. residence address(s) and the U.S. address(s) of his mother, and the director thus denied the application for abandonment.

The immigration regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) state, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Here, the applicant failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's decision. We, therefore, will summarily dismiss the appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
