DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native of Colombia, and a naturalized citizen of the United States. He seeks to have his Certificate of Naturalization corrected under section 338 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1449, to reflect a change in his date of birth from August 2, 1949, to August 16, 1948.

The director reviewed the applicant's record and determined that a correction to his Certificate of Naturalization was not justified. Specifically, the director noted that the applicant had claimed the date of birth on the certificate at the time of naturalization. The application was denied accordingly. On appeal, the applicant submits a copy of his birth certificate, and requests that his Certificate of Naturalization be changed to conform to his correct date of birth.

Section 338 of the Act provides the statutory authority relating to the contents of a Certificate of Naturalization. In addition, the regulations regarding the execution and issuance of Certificates of Naturalization are contained in 8 C.F.R. § 338.5, and provide, in part, that:

- (a) Whenever a Certificate of Naturalization has been delivered which does not conform to the facts shown on the application for naturalization, or a clerical error was made in preparing the certificate, an application for issuance of a corrected certificate, Form N-565, without fee, may be filed by the naturalized person.

- (e) The correction will not be deemed to be justified where the naturalized person later alleges that the name or date of birth which the applicant stated to be his or her correct name or date of birth at the time of naturalization was not in fact his or her name or date of birth at the time of the naturalization.

Based on the evidence in the record, the applicant has not established that his Certificate of Naturalization, which states that his date of birth is August 2, 1949, contains clerical errors attributable to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Here, the birth date on the applicant's Certificate of Naturalization conforms to the birth date stated in his two Applications for Naturalization. Additionally, the AAO observes that the record contains other documents with the August 2, 1949 date of birth, including: the applicant's Petition for Naturalization (Form N-405); two Form G-325A Biographic Information Forms; a Status Request (Form G-14); an Application for Verification of Lawful Permanent Residence of an Alien (Form I-550); the applicant's Immigrant Visa; an Application for an Immigrant Visa; the applicant's birth certificate; and a New York Good Conduct Certificate.

The AAO acknowledges that the applicant submitted a birth certificate showing the applicant's date of birth to be August 16, 1948. However, because the applicant acknowledged his birth date as August 2, 1949, on his naturalization application and there was no clerical error in the preparation of the applicant's certificate, USCIS has no authority to change the applicant's Certificate of Naturalization. See 8 C.F.R. § 338.5.

Only a federal court with jurisdiction over the applicant's naturalization proceedings has the authority to order that an amendment be made to the applicant's Certificate of Naturalization, after a hearing in which the Government is provided an opportunity to present its position on the matter. 8 C.F.R. § 334.16(b). See, e.g., Hussain v. USCIS, 541 F.Supp. 2d 1082, 1084-87 (D.Minn. 2008) (explaining the applicable procedural requirements and standard of proof).

Specifically, 8 C.F.R. § 334.16(b) states in pertinent part:

Whenever an application is made to the court to amend a petition for naturalization after final action thereon has been taken by the court, a copy of the application shall be served upon the district director having administrative jurisdiction over the territory in which the court is located, in the manner and within the time provided by the rules of court in which [the] application is made. No objection shall be made to the amendment of a petition for naturalization after the petitioner for naturalization has been admitted to citizenship if the motion or application is to correct a clerical error arising from oversight or omission. A representative of the Service may appear at the hearing upon such application and be heard in favor of or in opposition thereto. When the court orders the petition amended, the clerk of court shall transmit a copy of the order to the district director for inclusion in the Service file.

Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed without prejudice to the filing of an appropriate action before the U.S. district court with jurisdiction over the applicant's naturalization proceedings.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
