DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on July 17, 2003, the obligor posted a $10,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated September 21, 2009, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender into the custody of an officer of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at 10:00 a.m. on October 13, 2009, at 34 Civic Center Plaza, Room 1029, Santa Ana, CA 92701. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On March 19, 2010, the field office director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, counsel for the obligor asserts that he, the obligor and the bonded alien appeared at the immigration office in Santa Ana on October 13, 2009, but at a later time. Counsel asserts, "I signed in and then made contact with the officer who was to see my client." Counsel asserts that he presented to the officer a copy of a motion to reopen "which had a fee stamp on it." Counsel asserts that the officer "indicated that everything would be alright fr [sic] the time being since my client had come in and we had drafted and paid for the motion to reopen. The motion itself was filed with the board sometime afterwards."¹

Counsel, however, has not submitted any evidence to support his assertion that the obligor presented the alien on October 13, 2009. Without documentary evidence to support the claim, the assertions of counsel will not satisfy the obligor's burden of proof. The unsupported assertions of counsel do not constitute evidence. Matter of Laureano, 19 I&N Dec. 1, 3 (BIA 1983); Matter of Obaigbena, 19 I&N Dec. 533, 534 (BIA 1988); Matter of Ramirez-Sanchez, 17 I&N Dec. 503, 506 (BIA 1980).

Delivery bonds are violated if the obligor fails to cause the bonded alien to be produced or to produce himself/herself to an immigration officer or immigration judge, as specified in the appearance notice, upon each and every written request until removal proceedings are finally terminated, or until the alien is actually accepted by ICE for detention or removal. Matter of Smith, 16 I&N Dec. 146 (Reg. Comm. 1977).

The regulations provide that an obligor shall be released from liability where there has been "substantial performance" of all conditions imposed by the terms of the bond. 8 C.F.R. § 103.6(c)(3). A bond is breached when there has been a substantial violation of the stipulated conditions of the bond. 8 C.F.R. § 103.6(e).

8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(a)(2) provides that personal service may be effected by any of the following:

¹ The record reflects that a motion to reopen was filed before the Board of Immigration Appeals on November 30, 2009.

- (i) Delivery of a copy personally;
- (ii) Delivery of a copy at a person's dwelling house or usual place of abode by leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion;
- (iii) Delivery of a copy at the office of an attorney or other person including a corporation, by leaving it with a person in charge;
- (iv) Mailing a copy by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to a person at his last known address.

The evidence of record indicates that the Notice to Deliver Alien dated October 13, 2009, was sent to the obligor at [REDACTED] via certified mail. This notice demanded that the obligor produce the bonded alien on October 13, 2009. The domestic return receipt indicates the obligor received notice to produce the bonded alien on September 24, 2009. Consequently, the record clearly establishes that the notice was properly served on the obligor in compliance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(a)(2)(iv).

It is clear from the language used in the bond agreement that the obligor shall cause the alien to be produced or the alien shall produce himself to an ICE officer upon each and every request of such officer until removal proceedings are either finally terminated or the alien is accepted by ICE for detention or removal.

It must be noted that delivery bonds are exacted to ensure that aliens will be produced when and where required by ICE for hearings or removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for ICE to function in an orderly manner. The courts have long considered the confusion which would result if aliens could be surrendered at any time or place it suited the alien's or the surety's convenience. Matter of L-, 3 I&N Dec. 862 (C.O. 1950).

After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the field office director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
