DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The record indicates that on August 31, 2006, the obligor posted a $30,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated June 16, 2014, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested.<sup>1</sup> The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender into the custody of an officer of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at 1:00 p.m. on July 10, 2014, at [REDACTED] CA [REDACTED]. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On July 14, 2014, the field office director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, the obligor through counsel does not address the basis for the breach notice or provide any evidence to overcome the director's finding. Counsel indicates at Part 3.1.b on the appeal form that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within thirty (30) days.<sup>2</sup> However, more than two months later, no additional correspondence has been presented by counsel or the obligor.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as the obligor has failed to overcome the director's finding and has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal, the regulations mandate the summary dismissal of the appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.

<sup>1</sup> The Form I-340 was properly served on the obligor as the PS Form 3811, Domestic Return Receipt, indicates that it was received at the obligor's address of record on June 26, 2014.

<sup>2</sup> Every appeal submitted on the form prescribed by this chapter shall be executed and filed in accordance with the instructions on the form, such instructions being hereby incorporated into the particular section of the regulations in this chapter requiring its submission. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(1). The Form I-290B instructs the applicant to submit a brief and additional evidence to the AAO within 30 days of filing the appeal.
