IMMIGRATION BOND: Bond Conditioned for the Delivery of an Alien under Section 103 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1103

ON BEHALF OF OBLIGOR:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) in your case.

This is a non-precedent decision. The AAO does not announce new constructions of law nor establish agency policy through non-precedent decisions. If you believe the AAO incorrectly applied current law or policy to your case or if you seek to present new facts for consideration, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen, respectively. Any motion must be filed on a Notice of Appeal or Motion (Form I-290B) within 33 days of the date of this decision. Please review the Form I-290B instructions at <http://www.uscis.gov/forms> for the latest information on fee, filing location, and other requirements. See also 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Do not file a motion directly with the AAO.

Thank you,

Ron Rosenberg
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Louisville, Kentucky, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on December 17, 2010, the obligor posted a $4,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated April 1, 2014, was addressed to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's presence for an interview before an officer of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at 9:00 a.m. on April 15, 2014, at [REDACTED]. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On May 5, 2014, the field office director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, counsel asserts that at the conclusion of his removal proceedings, the bonded alien accepted voluntary departure and posted a $500 voluntary departure bond. Counsel states that a timely filed appeal is currently pending.

The obligor is not relieved of its responsibility to deliver the bonded alien at the time and place specified in the field officer director's demand notice as said director may call the alien in for an interview or custodial determination at any time. Bond proceedings are separate and distinct from removal proceedings. Removal proceedings are between the United States government and an alien with a questionable right to remain in the United States. A delivery bond is a contract between ICE and the obligor, where in consideration for obtaining the alien's release from custody, the obligor agrees to produce the alien on demand until the obligation to do so terminates under grounds specified in the contract.

Delivery bonds are violated if the obligor fails to cause the bonded alien to be produced or to produce himself/herself to an immigration officer or immigration judge upon each and every written request until removal proceedings are finally terminated, or until the alien is actually accepted by ICE for detention or removal. Matter of Smith, 16 I&N Dec. 146 (Reg. Comm. 1977).

The regulations provide that an obligor shall be released from liability where there has been "substantial performance" of all conditions imposed by the terms of the bond. 8 C.F.R. § 103.6(c)(3). A bond is breached when there has been a substantial violation of the stipulated conditions of the bond. 8 C.F.R. § 103.6(e).

8 C.F.R. § 103.8(a)(2) provides that personal service may be effected by any of the following:

- (i) Delivery of a copy personally;
- (ii) Delivery of a copy at a person's dwelling house or usual place of abode by leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion;

- (iii) Delivery of a copy at the office of an attorney or other person including a corporation, by leaving it with a person in charge;
- (iv) Mailing a copy by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to a person at his last known address.
- (v) If so requested by a party, advising the party by electronic mail and posting the decision to the party's USCIS account.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the obligor did not receive the April 1, 2014 demand notice.

The evidence of record indicates that the Notice to Deliver Alien dated April 1, 2014 was sent to the obligor at [REDACTED] via certified mail. This notice demanded that the obligor produce the bonded alien on April 15, 2014. The website of the United States Postal Service (USPS)¹ indicates that on April 5, 2014, an attempt to deliver the Notice to Deliver Alien at the obligor's address of record was made, but there was no authorized recipient available and a notice was left. On April 18, 2014, the USPS updated its system to reflect that the Notice to Deliver Alien remained unclaimed. The notice was returned by the USPS on May 4, 2014. As such, the obligor's failure to receive the Notice to Deliver Alien must be considered to be of his own making. Consequently, the record clearly establishes that the notice was properly served on the obligor in compliance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(a)(2)(iv).

It is clear from the language used in the bond agreement that the obligor shall cause the alien to be produced or the alien shall produce himself to an ICE officer upon each and every request of such officer until removal proceedings are either finally terminated or the alien is accepted by ICE for detention or removal.

It must be noted that delivery bonds are exacted to ensure that aliens will be produced when and where required by ICE for hearings or removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for ICE to function in an orderly manner. The courts have long considered the confusion which would result if aliens could be surrendered at any time or place it suited the alien's or the surety's convenience. Matter of L-, 3 I&N Dec. 862 (C.O. 1950).

After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the field office director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
