DISCUSSION: The delivery bond was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Enforcement and Removal Operations, Houston, Texas, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as unnecessary.

The record indicates that July 18, 2012, the obligor posted a $20,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated November 21, 2014, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's appearance for an interview before Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at 9:00 a.m. on January 5, 2015, at [REDACTED]. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On January 7, 2015, the field office director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, the obligor asserts that the bonded alien did not appear for the scheduled interview because the obligor never received the Form I-340.

The record reflects that the field office director issued a Notice of Bond Breach Reconsideration Decision (Form 71-042) on February 24, 2015. Pursuant to this notice, the bond was reinstated and continued in full force and effect. Therefore, this appeal is presently unnecessary.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed as unnecessary.
