DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Enforcement and Removal Operations, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The record indicates that on April 12, 2013, the obligor posted a $25,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated December 16, 2014, was sent to the obligor via regular mail.¹ The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender into the custody of an officer of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at 12:30 p.m. on January 16, 2015, at [REDACTED]. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On January 28, 2015, the field office director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, the obligor indicated she would file a brief and/or additional evidence with the AAO within 30 days. Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii), an affected party may request additional time to file a brief, which is to be submitted directly to the AAO. We have not received any additional documents, nor were any statements identifying erroneous conclusions of law or statement of fact made on the appeal form regarding the bond breach.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1) states in pertinent part:

- (v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

As we find that the obligor's appeal fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the field office director's decision, the appeal is therefore summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.

¹ A Form I-340 dated November 13, 2014, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The website of the United States Postal Service indicates that the Notice to Deliver Alien was delivered to the obligor's address on record on November 17, 2014.
