IN RE:

[REDACTED]

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED¹

On October 12, 2007, the Field Office Director, Chicago, Illinois, forwarded to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) a motion to reopen or reconsider his denial of your Form I-601 waiver of inadmissibility. His letter indicated that he considered your motion to be an appeal. There is no authority in the regulations for a motion to be treated as an appeal. The AAO has no jurisdiction over your waiver application and will therefore return the matter to the originating office for any further action.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please contact that office for any further inquiry or assistance. Thank you.

¹ The AAO notes that applicant appears to be represented. The record, however, does not contain a signed Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative. Therefore, the applicant will be considered to be self-represented and the decision will be furnished only to the applicant.
