ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the AAO inappropriately applied the law in reaching its decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen with the field office or service center that originally decided your case by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630. The specific requirements for filing such a motion can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Do not file any motion directly with the AAO. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires any motion to be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the District Director, Baltimore, Maryland, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Zambia who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(I), for having been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude. The applicant's spouse is a U.S. citizen. The applicant seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(h) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(h).

The district director concluded that the applicant had failed to establish that extreme hardship would be imposed on a qualifying relative and denied the Application for Waiver of Ground of Inadmissibility (Form I-601) accordingly. Decision of the District Director, dated April 23, 2010.

Section 212(a)(2)(A) of the Act states in pertinent part, that:

(i) [A]ny alien convicted of, or who admits having committed, or who admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of-

(I) a crime involving moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense) or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such a crime . . . is inadmissible.

On May 14, 2010 United States Immigration and Citizenship Services (USCIS) revoked the Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, in which the applicant was the beneficiary. On July 19, 2010, USCIS denied a motion to reopen the I-130 proceedings. There is no indication that the Form I-130 was appealed to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA).

The Form I-601 submitted by the applicant was filed incident to his Form I-485 application to adjust his status to lawful permanent resident and the Form I-130 petition on his behalf. As the Form I-130 petition has been revoked, there is no underlying basis for the applicant's Form I-485 and Form I-601 applications. Accordingly, no purpose is served in adjudicating the Form I-601 application or determining whether the applicant is eligible for a waiver of inadmissibility at this time, and the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
