Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for waiver of inadmissibility was denied by the Acting Field Office Director, Oakland Park, Florida. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Trinidad and Tobago who was found to be inadmissible under section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(I), for having been convicted of crimes involving moral turpitude. The applicant is applying for a waiver under section 212(h) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(h), in order to reside in the United States with his U.S. citizen wife and lawful permanent resident mother.

In a decision, dated May 20, 2011, the acting field office director determined that the applicant failed to establish extreme hardship to his U.S. citizen spouse, and denied the Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601) accordingly.

On appeal, counsel states that the decision by the acting field office director is in error and contrary to the law and evidence presented. Counsel states that he will be submitting a brief within 30 days.

We note that it has now been two years since the applicant filed his appeal and no brief or additional evidence has been submitted.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part that:

(v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant's appeal fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the acting field office director's decision. The appeal will therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
