John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Field Office Director, Los Angeles, California, denied the Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after Deportation or Removal (Form I-212) and it is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Lebanon who, on November 2, 1994, was placed into immigration proceedings after entering without inspection. On December 19, 1997, the immigration judge denied the applicant's applications for asylum and withholding of removal and granted him voluntary departure until November 8, 1996. The applicant appealed to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On December 19, 1997, the BIA dismissed the applicant's appeal. The applicant failed to surrender for removal or depart from the United States, thereby changing the voluntary departure to a final order of removal. The applicant filed a motion to reopen and a stay of removal. On December 13, 2002, the BIA denied the motion to reopen and the stay of removal. On March 10, 2003, the applicant was removed from the United States and returned to Lebanon, where he claims to have since resided. On June 17, 2004, the applicant filed the Form I-212, indicating that he resided in Lebanon. The applicant is inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(A)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(ii). He seeks permission to reapply for admission into the United States under section 212(a)(9)(A)(iii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(iii) in order to reside in the United States with his U.S. citizen mother.

The field office director determined that the applicant did not warrant a favorable exercise of discretion and denied the Form I-212 accordingly. See Field Office Director's Decision, dated August 18, 2008.

On appeal, counsel contends that the field office director erred in finding the applicant's marriage to be mala fide. Counsel contends that it was an abuse of discretion to find the applicant's unfavorable factors outweighed the positive. See Form I-290B, dated September 18, 2008. In support of his contentions, counsel submits only the referenced Form I-290B. On the Form I-290B, counsel indicates that he will forward additional evidence and/or a brief within thirty days. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(viii) and the instructions to Form I-290B require the affected party to submit the brief or evidence directly to the AAO, not to the Los Angeles, California District Office or any other federal office. The record does not contain the brief and/or evidence that counsel indicated would be submitted to the AAO. Even if counsel were to submit evidence that a brief was filed with an office other than the AAO, the AAO would not consider the brief on appeal because counsel failed to follow the regulations or the instructions for the proper filing location. Accordingly the record is complete.

Section 212(a)(9) of the Act states in pertinent part:

(A) Certain aliens previously removed.-

- (i) Arriving aliens.- Any alien who has been ordered removed under section 235(b)(1) or at the end of proceedings under section 240 initiated upon the alien's arrival in the United States and who again seeks admission within five years of the date of such removal (or within 20 years in the case of a second or subsequent removal or at any time in the case of an alien convicted of an aggravated felony) is inadmissible.

- (ii) Other aliens.-Any alien not described in clause (i) who-
 - (I) has been ordered removed under section 240 or any other provision of law, or
 - (II) departed the United States while an order of removal was outstanding, and who seeks admission within 10 years of the date of such alien's departure or removal (or within 20 years of such date in the case of a second or subsequent removal or at any time in the case on a alien convicted of an aggravated felony) is inadmissible.
- (iii) Exception.- Clauses (i) and (ii) shall not apply to an alien seeking admission within a period if, prior to the date of the alien's reembarkation at a place outside the United States or attempt to be admitted from foreign contiguous territory, the Secretary has consented to the alien's reapplying for admission.

(C) Aliens unlawfully present after previous immigration violations.-

- (i) In general.-Any alien who-

- (I) has been unlawfully present in the United States for an aggregate period of more than 1 year, or

- (II) has been ordered removed under section 235(b)(1), section 240, or any other provision of law, and who enters or attempts to reenter the United States without being admitted is inadmissible.

- (ii) Exception.- Clause (i) shall not apply to an alien seeking admission more than 10 years after the date of the alien's last departure from the United States if, prior to the alien's reembarkation at a place outside the United States or attempt to be readmitted from a foreign contiguous territory, the Secretary has consented to the alien's reapplying for admission. The Secretary, in the Secretary's discretion, may waive the provisions of section 212(a)(9)(C)(i) in the case of an alien to whom the Secretary has granted classification under clause (iii), (iv), or (v) of section 204(a)(1)(A), or classification under clause (ii), (iii), or (iv) of section 204(a)(1)(B), in any case in which there is a connection between—

- (1) the alien's having been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty; and

- (2) the alien's--

- (A) removal;
- (B) departure from the United States;
- (C) reentry or reentries into the United States; or
- (D) attempted reentry into the United States.

The applicant and counsel, by indicating on the Form I-212 that the applicant resides in Lebanon, assert that the applicant has remained outside the United States and lived in Lebanon since he was removed on March 10, 2003.¹

The AAO notes that the applicant is inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for being unlawfully present in the United States for more than one year, from January 18, 1998, the date on which the applicant's voluntary departure expired, and March 10, 2003, the date on which he departed the United States, and is seeking admission within ten years of his last departure. To seek a waiver of inadmissibility under section 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(v), an applicant must file an Application for Waiver of Ground of Inadmissibility (Form I-601).

As required by 8 C.F.R. § 212.2(d), an immigrant visa applicant who is outside the United States and requires both a waiver and permission to reapply for admission must simultaneously file the Form I-601 and the Form I-212 with the U.S. Consulate having jurisdiction over the applicant's place of residence. As the applicant has not complied with the regulatory requirements for filing the Form I-212, the application in this matter was improperly filed. Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.

¹ The AAO notes that if it is later confirmed that the applicant illegally reentered the United States at any time after his 2005 removal, he is inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(C)(i) of the Act and is ineligible for permission to reapply for admission until he has remained outside the United States for a period of ten years. See Matter of Torres-Garcia, 23 I&N Dec. 866 (BIA 2006) and Gonzales v. DHS (Gonzales II), 508 F.3d 1227 (9th Cir. 2007).
