DISCUSSION: The Field Office Director, Houston, Texas, denied the Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after Deportation or Removal (Form I-212) and it is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The record reflects that, on May 25, 2010, the field office director found that the applicant is inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for seeking admission within ten years of her last departure after having accrued more than one year of unlawful presence in the United States. The field office director determined that the applicant was required to file an Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601) and a Form I-212 simultaneously with the U.S. Consulate abroad. The field office director denied the Form I-212 accordingly. Decision of the Field Office Director, dated May 25, 2010.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The record reflects that, on June 30, 2010, counsel filed a Notice of Appeal (Form I-290B). Counsel submits only the referenced Form I-290B. On the Form I-290B, counsel indicates that she will forward additional evidence and/or a brief within thirty days. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(viii) and the instructions to Form I-290B require the affected party to submit the brief or evidence directly to the AAO, not to the Houston, Texas field office or any other federal office. The record does not contain the brief and/or evidence that counsel indicated would be submitted to the AAO. Even if counsel were to submit evidence that a brief was filed with an office other than the AAO, the AAO would not consider the brief on appeal because counsel failed to follow the regulations or the instructions for the proper filing location.

On the Form I-290B, counsel states that she will be providing a new Form I-212, a Form I-601 and evidence in support of both, as well as a brief on the appeal within 30 days. Counsel failed to identify either on the Form I-290B or through submission of a brief or evidence any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact made by the field office director. The applicant's appeal will therefore be summarily dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
