IN RE: Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after Deportation or Removal under Section 212(a)(9)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A).

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission After Deportation or Removal (Form I-212) was denied by the Field Office Director, Vienna, Austria and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The Form I-212 was denied solely based on the denial of the Form I-601. As the AAO has now found the applicant eligible for a waiver of inadmissibility under sections 212(a)(9)(B) and 212(i) of the Act, it will withdraw the Field Office Director's decision on the Form I-212 and render a new decision. The appeal will be sustained.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Albania who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to sections 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), and 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i). He seeks permission to reapply for admission into the United States under section 212(a)(9)(A)(iii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(iii), in order to remain in the United States and reside with his U.S. citizen spouse and children.

The Field Office Director determined that the applicant was inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for having been unlawfully present in the United States for more than one year and again seeking admission within ten years of his last departure from the United States. He was also found to be inadmissible to the United States under section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i), for procuring admission to the United States through fraud or misrepresentation. The applicant is also inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(A)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(ii) because he failed to voluntarily depart on or before July 30, 1998, as ordered by an Immigration Judge, and his order therefore converted into a removal order. The Field Office Director found that the applicant failed to overcome the grounds of inadmissibility and thus denied the Form I-212 as a matter of discretion, as its approval would serve no purpose. Decision of the Field Office Director, dated January 22, 2010.

On appeal, counsel asserts that United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) erred in finding that the applicant had failed to establish that his qualifying spouse would suffer extreme hardship. See Applicant's Brief in Support of I-601 and I-212 Appeal.

Section 212(a)(9)(A) of the Act states in pertinent part:

(A) Certain aliens previously removed.-

(ii) Other aliens. - Any alien not described in clause (i) who-

(I) has been ordered removed under section 240 or any other provision of law, or

(II) departed the United States while an order of removal was outstanding, and seeks admission within 10 years of the date of such alien's departure or removal (or within 20 years of such date in the case of a second or subsequent removal or at any time in the case of an aliens convicted of an aggravated felony) is inadmissible.

(iii) Exception.- Clauses (i) and (ii) shall not apply to an alien seeking admission within a period if, prior to the date of the alien's reembarkation at a place outside the United States or attempt to be admitted from foreign contiguous territory, the Attorney General [now Secretary, Homeland Security, "Secretary"] has consented to the alien's reapplying for admission.

On July 16, 2008, the applicant was removed to Albania pursuant to an order of removal under section 240 of the Act, and as such, he is inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(A) of the Act and must request permission to reapply for admission.

A grant of permission to reapply for admission is a discretionary decision based on the weighing of negative and positive factors. The AAO has found that the applicant warrants a favorable exercise of discretion related to the adjudication of the Form I-601. For the reasons stated in that finding, the AAO finds that the applicant's Form I-212 should also be granted as a matter of discretion.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained.
