DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Acting District Director, Mexico City, Mexico, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who was found to be inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i), for having sought to procure admission to the United States through fraud or misrepresentation of a material fact and under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for having been unlawfully present in the United States for a period of one year or more. The applicant is married to a U.S. Citizen and is the beneficiary of an approved Petition for Alien Relative. She seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to sections 212(i) and 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. §§ 1182(i) and 1182(a)(9)(B)(v), in order to return to the United States and reside with her husband.

The acting district director concluded that the applicant failed to establish that extreme hardship would be imposed on a qualifying relative and denied the application accordingly. See Decision of the Acting District Director dated April 8, 2008.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant states that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) failed to give the applicant an opportunity to present evidence of extreme hardship. Counsel states that hardship factors exist in the case that would warrant a finding of extreme hardship and evidence will be presented at the time of the filing of the appeal brief. Counsel requested 30 additional days to submit additional evidence and a brief in support of the appeal. As of this date, over two years later, no additional statement or evidence has been submitted. On October 28, 2010, the AAO sent a facsimile to counsel requesting copies of any brief or additional materials that had been submitted. No response was received and the record is considered complete.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1) states in pertinent part that:

(v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant's appeal fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the district director's decision. The appeal is therefore summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
