If you believe the law was inappropriately applied by us in reaching our decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen. The specific requirements for filing such a request can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by Field Office Director, Atlanta, Georgia, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The AAO will return the matter to the Field Office Director for treatment as a motion to reopen.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days after service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The record indicates that the Field Office Director issued the decision on October 15, 2007. It is noted that the Field Office Director properly gave notice to the applicant that she had 30 days to file her appeal. United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) received the appeal, dated November 5, 2007, on January 2, 2008, 79 days after the decision was issued. In the coversheet to the Notice of Appeal or Motion (Form I-290B), counsel claims that he “has just been retained to represent [the applicant]” and he “respectfully request[s] that [USCIS] submit [their] appeal to AAO in timely manner.” The AAO notes that the original coversheet is undated; however, when counsel submitted a copy of the coversheet with his brief, the date of November 5, 2007 was handwritten on the coversheet. The AAO finds that the handwritten date on the coversheet and the date on the Form I-290B are insufficient proof to establish that the applicant’s appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO or the Field Office Director the authority to extend the 33-day time limit for filing an appeal. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. A motion to reconsider a decision on an application or petition must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3). A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4).

Here, the untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen based on counsel’s appeal brief and four affidavits from the applicant’s family and friends. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Field Office Director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). Therefore, the Field Office Director must consider the untimely appeal as a motion to reopen and render a new decision accordingly.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected. The matter is returned to the Field Office Director for treatment as a motion to reopen and the issuance of a new decision.
