DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Field Office Director, Seattle, Washington, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record reflects that the applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i), for having attempted to procure admission to the United States through fraud or the willful misrepresentation of a material fact, and section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for having been unlawfully present in the United States for more than one year and seeking readmission within ten years of her last departure from the United States. The applicant's spouse and child are U.S. citizens. The applicant seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(i), and 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(v), in order to reside in the United States with her family.

The field office director found that the applicant had failed to establish that extreme hardship would be imposed on the applicant's qualifying relative and denied the Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601) accordingly. Decision of the Field Office Director, at 5, dated July 30, 2009.

On appeal, prior counsel asserts that the decision is erroneous and should be reversed. Prior Counsel's Appeal Brief, at 2, dated August 17, 2009.¹

The record includes, but is not limited to, counsel's brief. The entire record was reviewed and considered in arriving at a decision on the appeal.

The record reflects that the applicant presented another individual's Form I-551 when seeking to procure admission to the United States at the Calexico port of entry on June 8, 1997. Based on this misrepresentation, the applicant is inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act.

Section 212(a)(6)(C) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that:

- (i) Any alien who, by fraud or willfully misrepresenting a material fact, seeks to procure (or has sought to procure or has procured) a visa, other documentation, or admission into the United States or other benefit provided under this Act is inadmissible.

On June 8, 1997, the applicant was ordered removed from the United States pursuant to section 235(b)(1) of the Act. The applicant subsequently entered the United States without inspection in October 1997, departed the United States in August 2000, reentered the United States without inspection in October 2001 and filed Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or ¹ Although the record includes a Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, from [REDACTED] the AAO will consider the applicant to be self-represented as [REDACTED] is currently suspended from practicing before the Department of Homeland Security.

Adjust Status on September 28, 2006. The applicant accrued unlawful presence from October 1997, the date of her first entry without inspection, until August 2000, the date of her departure from the United States. Based on her accrual of more than one year of unlawful presence and subsequent departure from the United States, the AAO finds that the applicant is inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Act.

Section 212(a)(9)(B) of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

(B) Aliens Unlawfully Present.-

(i) In general. - Any alien (other than an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence) who-

(II) has been unlawfully present in the United States for one year or more, and who again seeks admission within 10 years of the date of such alien's departure or removal from the United States, is inadmissible.

The AAO also finds that the applicant is inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(C)(i)(II) of the Act for having been ordered removed under section 235(b)(1) of the Act and reentering the United States without being admitted. An application or petition that fails to comply with the technical requirements of the law may be denied by the AAO even if the Field Office does not identify all of the grounds for denial in the initial decision. See Spencer Enterprises, Inc. v. United States, 229 F. Supp. 2d 1025, 1043 (E.D. Cal. 2001), aff'd, 345 F.3d 683 (9th Cir. 2003); see also Soltane v. DOJ, 381 F.3d 143, 145 (3d Cir. 2004) (noting that the AAO conducts appellate review on a de novo basis).

Section 212(a)(9)(C)(i) of the Act states, in pertinent part:

(C) Aliens unlawfully present after previous immigration violations.-

(i) In general.-Any alien who-

(I) has been unlawfully present in the United States for an aggregate period of more than 1 year, or

(II) has been ordered removed under section 235(b)(1), section 240, or any other provision of law, and who enters or attempts to reenter the United States without being admitted is inadmissible.

(ii) Exception.—Clause (i) shall not apply to an alien seeking admission more than 10 years after the date of the alien's last departure from the United States if . . . the Attorney General [now the Secretary of Homeland Security] has consented to the alien's reapplying for admission....

To seek an exception from a finding of inadmissibility under section 212(a)(9)(C)(i)(I) of the Act, an applicant must file for permission to reapply for admission (Form I-212). However, consent to reapply under section 212(a)(9)(C)(ii) of the Act can only be granted to one who has left the United States, is currently abroad and is seeking admission to the United States at least ten years after the date of his or her last departure. See Matter of Torres-Garcia, 23 I&N Dec. 866 (BIA 2006). The record does not reflect that the applicant in the present matter has met these requirements. Accordingly, the applicant is statutorily ineligible to seek an exception from her inadmissibility under section 212(a)(9)(C)(i)(II) of the Act and the AAO therefore finds no purpose would be served in considering the merits of her Form I-601 waiver application under sections 212(a)(9)(B)(v) and 212(i) of the Act. The appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
