Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Field Office Director, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, denied the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Ground of Excludability (Form I-601). The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file an appeal on the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion (Form I-290B) to the Administrative Appeals Office, including the required filing fee, with the office where the unfavorable decision was made. In addition, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal with the office where the unfavorable decision was made within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The record indicates that the field office director issued the decision on June 29, 2009. It is noted that the field office director gave notice to the applicant that he had 33 days to file the appeal. In addition, the field office director noted that the appeal must be submitted with the required fee.¹ Despite the instructions provided by the field office director, counsel for the applicant failed to submit the required filing fee with the Form I-290B. The filing fee was received by the field office director on August 20, 2009, 52 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the 33-day time limit for filing an appeal. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. A motion to reconsider a decision on an application or petition must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3). A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4).

Here, the untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen, as counsel for the applicant has provided additional documentation containing new facts to be considered. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the field office director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). Therefore, the field office director must consider the untimely appeal as a motion to reopen and render a new decision accordingly.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected. The matter is returned to the field office director for consideration as a motion to reopen.
