Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the District Director, Los Angeles, California. The Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) dismissed a subsequent appeal. The matter is now before the AAO on a motion to reopen. The motion will be dismissed and the underlying application will remain denied.

The record reflects that the applicant is a native and citizen of South Korea who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act for willful misrepresentation of a material fact in order to procure an immigration benefit. The applicant is the son of a U.S. citizen and is married to a lawful permanent resident. The applicant seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(i) of the Act in order to reside with his mother, his wife, and children in the United States.

The district director found that the applicant failed to establish extreme hardship to a qualifying relative and denied the waiver application accordingly. Decision of the District Director, dated September 20, 2006. The AAO dismissed a subsequent appeal, also concluding that the applicant did not establish extreme hardship to a qualifying relative. Decision of the Administrative Appeals Office, dated January 12, 2009.

The applicant filed a motion to reopen contending that the applicant's mother is suffering from delusional disorder and that there is new evidence showing that the applicant's departure would cause extreme financial hardship.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. A motion to reconsider a decision on an application or petition must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3). A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4).

The motion shall be dismissed for failing to meet the requirement set forth in 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(iii). The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(iii) lists the filing requirements for motions to reopen and motions to reconsider. Section 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(iii)(C) requires that motions be "[a]ccompanied by a statement about whether or not the validity of the unfavorable decision has been or is the subject of any judicial proceeding." In this matter, the motion does not contain the statement required by this regulation. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4) states that a motion which does not meet applicable requirements must be dismissed. Therefore, because the instant motion did not meet the applicable filing requirements listed in 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(iii)(C), it must be dismissed for this reason.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
