DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Field Officer Director, Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that an affected party must file a complete appeal within 30 days after service of an unfavorable decision. If the decision is mailed, the 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after it is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The date of filing is the date of actual receipt of the appeal, not the date of mailing. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The record reflects that the field office director sent the decision on September 4, 2012 to the applicant at the applicant's address of record. It is noted that the field office director stated the applicant had 33 days to file an appeal with the Santo Domingo Field Office address, and provided location-specific instructions on how to pay the fee. Although the appeal is dated October 4, 2012, the appeal was erroneously filed with the AAO, which received it on October 11, 2012, 37 days after the decision was issued, and forwarded it to the field office, which rejected it for an improper fee submission. On November 14, 2012, the applicant sent the appeal with the proper fee to the correct address, which received it on November 26, 2012, 83 days after the decision was issued. Therefore, the appeal was untimely and must be rejected.

Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the time limit for filing an appeal. However, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) provides that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen as described in 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2) or a motion to reconsider as described in 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3), the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion to reconsider must: (1) state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or USCIS policy; and (2) establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3).

The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the director of the Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Field Office. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). The matter will therefore be returned to the field office director who permitted the appeal to proceed. If the field office director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
