Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Officer in Charge, Ciudad Juarez, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who was found to be inadmissible to the United States under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for having been unlawfully present in the United States for one year or more. The applicant is the beneficiary of an approved Petition for Alien Relative that was filed by his U.S. Citizen mother and seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(v), in order to return to the United States.

The district director concluded that the applicant failed to establish that extreme hardship would be imposed on a qualifying relative and denied the Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601) accordingly. Decision of the District Director dated May 9, 2007.

On appeal the applicant asserted that his mother was suffering extreme hardship as a result of their separation and was ill and could no longer take care of his children who resided with her. In support of the appeal the applicant submitted letters from his children and medical records for his mother indicating she was suffering from various medical conditions. Public records indicate that the applicant's mother died on August 31, 2009.

Section 212(a)(9)(B) of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

- (i) In general. - Any alien (other than an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence) who –
 - (II) Has been unlawfully present in the United States for one year or more, and who again seeks admission within 10 years of the date of such alien's departure or removal from the United States, is inadmissible.

- (v) Waiver. – The Attorney General [now Secretary, Homeland Security, "Secretary"] has sole discretion to waive clause (i) in the case of an immigrant who is the spouse or son or daughter of a United States citizen or of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, if it is established to the satisfaction of the Attorney General [Secretary] that the refusal of admission to such immigrant alien would result in extreme hardship to the citizen or lawfully resident spouse or parent of such alien.

The viability of the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility, is dependent on an immigrant visa application that is, in turn, based on an approved Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative. The Petition for Alien Relative filed on behalf of the applicant is subject to automatic revocation in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 205.1(3)(i)(C) upon the petitioner's death on August 31, 2009. In the absence of an underlying approved Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility, is moot. Further, section 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act provides that a waiver of the bar to admission is dependent first upon a showing that the bar imposes an extreme hardship on a qualifying family member. The applicant no longer qualifies for a waiver under sections 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act because he no longer has a qualifying relative. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed as the applicant no longer has a qualifying relative and there would be no purpose served in granting a waiver of inadmissibility.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
